

From the President

It is with joy and sadness I write my last front page note. What an amazing group of people we are, have become and many more still undiscovered. The hidden talents you find out about people by becoming friends. The amount of knowledge I personally have gained from including you all in my sphere is abundant. Thank you for sharing.

I would like to share with you the no complaining rule by Jon Gordon, it goes as such: you're not allowed to complain unless you identify one or two possible solutions to your complaint. So next time you or someone you know goes to complain enact the no complaining rule and see if things don't get better. Our profession is changing once again and this is an opportunity for us to go above and beyond, leading by example, demonstrating our professionalism making sure the community at large recognize and acknowledge we are professionals & giving back to the community by educating them about home ownership and all that is involved. The Flagler County Chapter, Women's Council of Realtors reached out to the community raising funds for the Family

Life Center/ Safe house and ran a summer long food drive for the Flagler Coalition Food Center. Many of our members have projects of their own working to do good for the betterment of our community. We are a group who care about our community.

Our educational programs are designed to develop you, increase your knowledge, and bring you new and relevant knowledge NOW. I hope and believe this was achieved this past year and I can tell you 2010's programs are homeruns!

I wish to thank each and every one of you for the honor of serving as your 2009 President.

Sincerely,

Karen Radcliff
